

Gregg Uecker

Chief Supply Chain & Operations Officer

We Believe In Responsible Food and Agriculture®

As Chief Supply Chain & Operations Officer for Perdue Foods, Gregg Uecker leads the company's end-to-end supply chain, ensuring the safe, efficient, and reliable delivery of high-quality products to customers across the globe. His oversight spans live production, plant operations, transportation, food safety, order fulfillment, customer service, warehousing, quality assurance, procurement, continuous improvement, and engineering—connecting every step of Perdue's integrated food system.

Gregg also oversees prepared foods and supply chain strategy and leads Perdue's workplace safety efforts, supporting tens of thousands of associates across 15 states. His focus on operational excellence, innovation, and associate well-being helps drive performance while strengthening the company's commitment to quality and integrity.

With more than three decades of experience in the food and beverage industry, Gregg brings deep expertise in large-scale manufacturing and supply chain management. Before joining Perdue, he spent nearly 30 years at Tyson Foods, where he held senior leadership roles shaping strategy, capital investment, and transformation initiatives that fueled growth and operational success. Gregg earned his B.S. in Chemistry with an emphasis in Business Administration from the University of South Dakota.

Gregg is a proven leader with a hands-on approach and a commitment to continuous improvement; he helps ensure Perdue's supply chain remains a cornerstone of the company's vision: To be the most trusted name in food and agricultural products.®
