

Perry Aulie President of Perdue AgriBusiness

---

Perry Aulie is President of Perdue AgriBusiness, one of two operating divisions of Perdue Farms and among the largest U.S. grain companies. He joined the company in 2019. Aulie oversees a diverse group of agricultural businesses in the domestic and international food, feed, agricultural inputs and biofuels industries. Perdue AgriBusiness sources, purchases and processes agricultural commodities from more than 6,500 farmers and offers a diverse portfolio of products, including grains, soybean meal, blended feed ingredients, organic and specialty seeds and top-quality oils for the food industry, and services from logistics to information technology management, including accounting, risk management, and information technology.

Aulie, a veteran in the agriculture and food industries, is a respected leader and innovator in global agribusiness, he has decades of leadership experience and hands-on experience working end-to-end in the value chain—from farmers to retail customers.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture and a Master of Science degree in Agriculture Economics from the University of Saskatchewan in Canada.

