

Drew Getty

Executive Vice President and General Counsel

As Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Drew Getty leads Perdue Farms' legal, environmental, and compliance functions. A trusted advisor to executive leadership, he helps guide the company through complex business, regulatory, and operational challenges while supporting its long-term strategic priorities. His leadership spans enterprise risk management, governance, environmental stewardship, and ethical business conduct, helping ensure Perdue remains well-positioned in an increasingly complex operating environment.

Over more than a decade with Perdue, Drew has developed a deep understanding of the company's operations, culture, and stakeholder expectations. His experience across legal, compliance, environmental, and business functions gives him a unique perspective on the interconnected issues shaping the food and agriculture industry. Through that work, he has helped strengthen enterprise governance, guide the company's response to evolving regulatory requirements, and build capabilities that support responsible growth and long-term business success.

Known for his collaborative leadership style and thoughtful approach to complex challenges, Drew works closely with leaders across the organization to balance risk, opportunity, and business objectives. He is committed to fostering a culture of integrity, accountability, and continuous improvement, while helping teams navigate change and make informed decisions that advance the company's mission and values.

Outside of Perdue, Drew is actively involved in organizations focused on strengthening communities and creating opportunities for future generations. His service with the Wicomico County Education Foundation, the Maryland Chamber of Commerce, and the Greater Salisbury Committee reflects his commitment to education, economic vitality, and the long-term success of the region. Drew earned a Bachelor of Arts in English from Dickinson College and a Juris Doctor from the University of Baltimore School of Law.
